A revealing documentary about the tragic life of supermodel Gia Carangi, hosted by Elizabeth Vargas.

May 26, 2001

ABC NEWS SPECIAL: PEARL HARBOR: TWO HOURS THAT CHANGED THE WORLD

Ten years ago, ABC News and NHK television of Japan embarked on an historic joint effort to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Japanese surprise attack on Pearl Harbor. David Brinkley hosts this news special, which will rebroadcast their accounts in an effort to bring life, for a new generation, two hours that changed the world.

May 30, 2001

VANISHED: DANGEROUS OBSESSION

Anchored by Elizabeth Vargas, this hour-long special revolves around the mystery of a young woman, Lucie Blackman, who disappeared amid Tokyo's Glittering Neon Club last July.

June 6, 2001

VANISHED: DISAPPEARANCE DOWN UNDER

ABC correspondent Robin Roberts reports on a couple's mysterious disappearance off the Great Barrier Reef in Australia. An American couple, Tom and Eillen Lonergan, on their way back from a three-year Peace Corp assignment, never returned from a diving exercise to the reef. As police begin to investigate their disappearance, a mystery began to unfold.

June 29, 2001

TAMPERING WITH NATURE WITH JOHN STOSSEL

ABC News correspondent John Stossel talks to activists who say humanity is destroying the Earth, pre-industrial life is better, and new science such as "designer babies" should be stopped. Yet today, our children are sometimes taught in school that modern society is evil, killing wildlife and threatening to destroy the planet.

ABC NEWS 20/20 - Second Quarter, 2001

Thursday, April 5, 2001

"COLLISION COURSE" (AIR RAGE—2 PARTS)

Producers: Glen Silber and Dennis O'Brien; Support: Terry Dollard and Roje Augustin

Chris Cuomo looks at the air rage case surrounding Continental Airlines Flight 320 departing from Newark Airport, New Jersey. With bad weather and delayed flights, tempers were flying. But when it went too far, people began asking if air rage is to blame for one ticket agent who was left in a coma with a broken neck. Or was the passenger on the flight to blame who says he was protecting himself and his family? Chris Cuomo reports on what the courts ruled this week, and speaks with the family involved, witnesses at the gate, and the airline employee himself.

"Q & A—JENNIFER LOVE HEWITT"

Producer: Danielle Baum

Primetime talks with actress Jennifer Love Hewitt, who is currently starring in the film "Heartbreakers."

"PRIMETIME OWNER'S MANUAL: YOUR BODY" (NIGHT OWLS)

Producer: Tom Goldstone; Support: Matthew Crick

John Quinones reports that women's sleeping patterns may provide researchers the clues they need to cure some of the nation's sleep disorders.

"A SHOT IN THE DARK" (ABORTION DR)

Producers: Kathy McManus, David Peterkin, and David Perozzi; Support: Tanya Henderson and Jim DuBreuil

John Miller looks into the story of gynecologist and abortion doctor Barnett Sleppian, who was murdered by a sniper outside of his home. Just nine days following the killing, though, police received a break in the case. The day of the murder, a woman jogging near the Sleppian home, spotted a strange looking man and wrote a description of him in her journal, as well as his license plate number.

"DANGER DOWN UNDER" (KOALAS)

Producer: Bert Rudman; Support: Ani Mozian

Jay Schadler visits some of the cutest animals in the world—koalas. Koalas, one of the world's oldest species, are so large in number in Australia, that they are literally eating the land away. For this reason, conservation and wildlife officials are trying to figure out a way to reduce the number of koalas.

Friday, April 6, 2001

"JUDGE FOR YOURSELF" (JUDGES)

Producer: Rhonda Schwartz; Support: David Scott

Brian Ross' investigation reveals that some United States Federal judges attend seminars at a Tucson resort as a result of an educational program imposed by George Mason University. However, some people call these seminars junkets because the judges are provided with all of the resort's amenities. Because the seminars are also sponsored by a handful of corporations and pro business organizations that might later face the judges in court, there is suspicion that the companies are using the seminars as an incentive for the judges to rule for the corporations.

"ON THE EDGE"

Producer: Steve Schnee; Support: Michael Mendelsohn

Bill Ritter speaks with Tom Silliman who holds one of the world's most dangerous jobs as a skyscraper and antenna repair man, currently leading a construction crew at the top of the Empire State Building.

"WHAT MAKES DON TICK" (DON HEWITT)

Producer: Katie Thomson; Support: Kate Sheekey

Barbara Walters interviews 60 Minutes producer Don Hewitt. Hewitt started work at CBS in 1948, and pioneered the groundbreaking television newsmagazine.

"THE CANCER PILL" (LEUKEMIA PILL UPDATE)—OAD 2/11/00

Producer: Susan Wagner; Support: Rosa Cho

Dr. Timothy Johnson talks about a new cancer pill that is saving many lives and restoring some patients to complete health. A seven-year-old boy with leukemia took the pill and became healthy within weeks.

"GMAB—HOUSE MOVE"

Producer: Frank Mastropolo; Support: Christine Murphy

John Stossel says, "Give me a break," to a zoning rule that forced one family to move their house less than three feet after a neighbor complained it broke a rule that said the house must be five feet from the property line.

Thursday, April 12, 2001

"A GIFT OF LOVE" (EMPYRO ADOPTION)—2 PARTS

Producer: Joan Martelli; Support: Matthew Crick

Connie Chung talks with Bob and Suzanne Grey about their decision to give up their "extra" embryos for adoption and how it has helped to bring life into the lives of another couple who couldn't otherwise have children. Primetime also reports that when a woman becomes pregnant from a frozen embryo, and there are frozen embryos left, there are three choices for the embryo.

Q & A—HUGH GRANT

Producer: Danielle Baum

"SKYWAY ROBBERY" (BAGGAGE HANDLER UPDATE)

Producer: Bert Rudman; Support: Camille Elhassani and Valerie Parker

Chris Wallace reports on the growing number of people who are falling prey to stolen luggage.

"STOLEN DREAMS" (INNOCENT MAN)

Producer: Tom Berman; Support: Mary Healy

Cynthia McFadden talks about the more than fifty men and women who have been released from prison throughout the last few years because they were wrongfully accused. Primetime talks with several of these wrongly convicted men to see how they were compensated, if at all, for their time spent in prison.

"PRIMETIME OWNER'S MANUAL" (HOME FIRE EXTINGUISHERS)

Producers: Mary Van Horn and Catherine Upin; Support: Roje Augustin

Don Dahler reports that over half of the fire injuries in the United States are caused when people try to put out their own fires. Because of this statistic, Primetime advises viewers on how to successfully put out a fire.

Friday, April 13, 2001

"STICKS AND STONES" (GIRL SHOOTER)

Producer: Penny Fleming; Support: Claudette Caravaggi

Connie Chung speaks with Elizabeth Bush, the 14-year-old girl who made headlines after she shot one of the most popular girls in school. Friends considered Elizabeth an outcast and Elizabeth says that she became depressed. After unsuccessful counseling, Elizabeth had every intention of killing herself. But in one moment, she turned the gun away from her self, and shot classmate Kimberly Marchese in the shoulder.

"A JACKASS STUNT" (JACKASS)

Producer: Kayce Freed; Support: Sarah Holmberg

Lynn Sherr looks at the popular MTV show Jackass to try and figure out why the show has led many children to copy the dangerous stunts performed by Johnny Knoxville and his group of stuntmen. Tommy Hitz, a 12-year-old, was one child who attempted to mimic a stunt he had seen on the show and ended up setting his shirt on fire. As a result, he suffered second and third degree burns on his body.

"DR. DEATH" (KEVORKIAN UPDATE)

Producer: Tom Goldstone and Martin Clancy

Barbara Walters revisits her first interview with Dr. Jack Kevorkian. Dr. Kevorkian was convicted of murder two years ago for assisting in more than one hundred suicides. Kevorkian is now promising that if he is freed, he will never assist in another suicide.

"THE NEVERENDING STORY" (CRUCIFIXION)

Producer: John Dauer; Support: Christine Murphy

Bob Brown relates the story of Jesus' crucifixion and looks at the debates that still circulate regarding his death.

"GMAB PORK"

Producer: Kristina Kendall; Support: Logan Nakyanzi

John Stossel talks about the $2 trillion the government takes in income tax and the way it is used.

Thursday, April 19, 2001

"JENNIFER'S STORY" (ABBOTT LABS)

Producer: Catherine Upin; Support: Sara Holmberg

Dr. Nancy Snyderman warns people about the dangers associated with a routine test. Jennifer Roofer discovered the dangers after seeing her doctor when she thought she was pregnant. Doctors tested Jennifer with a special test called the Avid Pregnancy Test after they discovered high levels of HCG in Jennifer; cancerous HCG cells are often mistaken for pregnancy. After numerous doses of chemotherapy and a hysterectomy, doctors performed surgery on Jennifer to look for the cancerous cells and after finding no malignant cells, doctors declared that Jennifer never really had cancer. Now, Jennifer is unable to have children due to the misdiagnoses.

"DIFFERENT DRUMMER" (MICHAEL DEAVER)

Producer: Howard Rosenberg; Support: Mary Healy

Diane Sawyer talks with former White House colleague, Mike Deaver, about President Ronald Reagan and the special relationship the two shared.

"PROFILES IN COURAGE" (OKLAHOMA CITY FAMILY)

Producer: Tom Berman; Support: Jason Rovou and Christine Murphy

Cynthia McFadden visits with several of the children that Timothy McVeigh did not kill in the Oklahoma City bombing and who, after healing from their physical and emotional wounds, are healthy and happy children.

"DANGEROUS GAME" (SAFARI CLUB)—2 PARTS

Producer: Rhonda Schwartz; Support: David Scott

Brian Ross looks into an elite group of men who go after some of the rarest and most endangered animals in the world.

Q&A—ASLEY JUDD

Producer: Danielle Baum

Friday, April 20, 2001

PRE-EMPTED

Thursday, April 26, 2001

"RING OF FIRE" (VOLCANOS)—2 PARTS

Producer: Chris Whipple; Support: Myrna Toledo

John Quinones speaks with geologist, Stanley Williams, about the dangers of active volcanoes. More than 23,000 people were buried alive in an instant when a Colombian volcano named Galeras erupted without warning. However, even more disturbing is the fact that scientists believe there's an even more dangerous volcano in the same mountain range.

"PROMISES PROMISES" (COSMETIC COUNTERS)

Producer: Mary Van Horn; Support: Angela Chambers

Elizabeth Vargas and Primetime take undercover cameras into cosmetic stores to record what clerks tell women about the beauty products they are selling. The clerks swear by their products, including those that claim to change body appearances.

"ON HER OWN" (JANET JACKSON)—2 PARTS

Producer: Kristen Strand; Support: Susan Welsh

Diane Sawyer talks with music sensation, Janet Jackson, whose new album is expected to debut on the charts at number one next week. Jackson also discusses the many personal problems she has faced recently.

"Q & A"—SYLVESTER STALLONE

Producer: Danielle Baum

Friday, April 27, 2001

"BEING RICH" (DENISE RICH)—2 PARTS

Producer: Alan Goldberg; Support: Gail Rosenberg

Barbara Walters speaks with wealthy socialite, Denise Rich. Rich made headlines after reports claimed she paid for the presidential pardon of her husband, Mark Rich. Despite her contributions to President Clinton, Denise Rich says she did not buy her husband's pardon. Rich goes on to talk about her life before the pardon, and the accusations she has faced since.

"INNOCENCE LOST" (ALABAMA BURNING)

Producer: Teri Whitcraft; Support: Deborah Runcie

Connie Chung talks about the details surrounding the case of former Klansman, Thomas Blanton, accused of blowing up a black church in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1963 that killed four young girls. Blanton was one of the original suspects, but only one other man has been convicted. If Blanton is convicted, he will face life in prison.

"GMAB E.L.F."

Producer: Joy Ciarcia Levy

John Stossel says that some environmental activists are clueless and cruel. A group called E.L.F., led by activist Craig Rosebrow, attempts to burn down houses that threaten the environment in any way.

Thursday, May 3, 2001

"PRIMETIME INVESTIGATION" (MINI VANS)

Producer: Kim Skeen; Support: David Byrd and Camille Elhassani

Chris Wallace runs an investigation on the safety of Ford Chrysler's mini-vans. Primetime discovers that Chrysler's neglecting to install a Break Shift Interlock, a device that prevents the van from going into gear, causes many accidents.

"THE OUTSIDER" (AMISH COACH)

Producer: Kira Kay; Support: Erin Biddle

Elizabeth Vargas tells the story of Perry Reece, who became the only and most prominent black man in the small community of Burlin, Ohio. Reece first came to the town to become a basketball coach and had to overcome the town's initial hatred of him. To win their respect, he turned the not-so-great basketball team into a dominate force and preached the importance of loving God, your family, and basketball.

"MAYDAY!" (COAST GUARD)—OAD 12/21/00

Producers: Chris Whipple and Steve Schnee; Support: Michael Mendelsohn

Jay Schadler follows a dangerous rescue made by the U.S. Coast Guard as a cruise ship off the coast of Elizabeth City, NC began to take on water and go under.

"DESIGNING WOMEN" (MISS BRAZIL)

Producer: Christina Romano; Support: Jason Potts

John Quinones speaks with Julian Borges, the current Miss Brazil, who is under scrutiny for undergoing nineteen surgeries to make herself the "perfect woman."

"Q & A WITH SHAO"

Producer: Danielle Baum

Friday, May 4, 2001

"AN EYE FOR AN EYE...A LIFE FOR A LIFE" (EXECUTION HOUR)

"ACT I—EXECUTION ANGOLA" (THE DEATH HOUSE)

Producer: Joanna Breen; Support: Sylvia Johnson and Jen Senan

Barbara Walters takes viewers through the execution procedures. 20/20 travels to a prison in Angola, Louisiana, where 91 prisoners are on death row and almost 100 people have been put to death over the past few years. Brul Cain, the warden of the prison, takes viewers through the last few steps the prisoner would take before his scheduled execution.

"ACT II—ROB NIGH" (THE LAWYER)

Producer: Karen Burnes; Support: Jen Fukui

Barbara Walters speaks with Timothy McVeigh's lawyer, Rob Nigh. Nigh speaks about McVeigh's upcoming execution and his feelings about the event and his client. Because McVeigh's family will not be present during the execution, Nigh will be responsible for making arrangements for McVeigh's final moments.

"ACT III—JOSEPH HARTZLER" (THE PROSECUTOR)

Producer: Lynn Redmond; Support: Trish Arico

Barbara Walters sits down with lead prosecutor for the Timothy McVeigh case, Joseph Hartzler. For Hartzler, the McVeigh case has been a case of a lifetime. Hartzler, who has Multiple Sclerosis, says he wasn't even concerned with what the case would do to him physically. Although he is not a big proponent of the death penalty, he believes McVeigh deserves to be executed for his actions.

"ACT IV—EXECUTIONER" (THE EXECUTIONERS)

Producer: Jeff Diamond; Support: Sylvia Johnson

Chris Cuomo talks with two men who were once given the responsibilities of executing death row inmates in Alabama. Donald Cabana, the former warden, and Donald Hocut, the former execution coordinator at Parchment Prison, talk with 20/20 about the problems that often go along with the executions.

"ACT V—THE VICTIMS"

Producers: Reid Orvedahl and Tom Goldstone

Barbara Walters tells of the severe impact the impending execution of Timothy McVeigh leaves on the survivors of the bombing and the relatives of the victims. 20/20 speaks with several of the bombing victims about the Oklahoma City bombing and the feelings evoked by the execution.

Thursday, May 10, 2001

"WHODUNIT" (ROBERT BLAKE)

Producer: Harry Phillips; Support: Jim Dubreuil and Angela Chambers

John Quinones talks about clues surrounding the murder of Bonnie Blake, actor Robert Blake's wife. Detective Jim Tatum says that Robert Blake's story about what happened in the moments surrounding his wife's death does not add up. Friends describe the Blake's relationship as unhappy and insinuate that Robert Blake may not be as innocent as once thought.

"DIE TRYING/SKI TO DIE" (BILL JOHNSON)—2 PARTS

Producer: Dennis O'Brien; Support: Terry Dollard

Charles Gibson speaks with downhill skier, and 1984 Olympic Gold Medalist, Bill Johnson. Two months ago, as Johnson trained to gain a coveted spot on the Olympic team, he took a sharp turn while skiing, crashing into a wall at 50 mph. Johnson was seriously injured and remained in a coma for two weeks before coming out and making his way towards recovery.

"EXCEPTION TO THE RULES" (THE RULES)

Producer: Jackie Payson; Support: Christine Murphy and Tanya Henderson

Elizabeth Vargas talks about the popular book, The Rules, a book about how to get a man. Authors Ellen Fine and Sharon Schneider have also written a new book about how to keep a happy husband called The Rules to Keeping a Marriage.

"Q&A—GEORGE CARLIN"

Producer: Danielle Baum

Friday, May 11, 2001

PRE-EMPTED FOR "WINGSPAN"

Thursday, May 17, 2001

"WALLET DROP" (POLICE HONESTY)

Producer: Vic Walters; Support: Simon Surowicz

Brian Ross and Primetime go undercover as part of an integrity test to see if the nation's citizens can really trust America's police officers. As part of the test, Brian Ross hands a wallet or purse to an officer telling him or her that they found the items and want it to be returned to its owner. In the end, only eight wallets were returned with all the cash inside, and several of the wallets weren't returned at all.

"2001 SPACE ODESSEY" (SPACE TOURIST TETO)

"FAMILY SECRETS" (TENNESSEE SLAVE—3 PARTS)—OAD 11/2/00

Producer: David Perozzi; Vivian Hernandez

Sylvia Chase revisits and updates the story of Ester Combs. As an adopted child, she lived in the shadows, locked behind closed doors working as a slave to the very people who were supposed to love and raise her. And while the world was living outside, she was inside being beaten and raped.

"Q & A—ANNE ROBINSON"

Producer: Danielle Baum

Anne Robinson hosts the program called The Weakest Link.

Friday, May 18, 2001

"141 DAYS IN HELL" (ECUADOR)

Producers: Michael Pressman and Christina Romano; Support: Michael Mendelsohn

Chris Cuomo speaks with helicopter mechanic, Jason Webber, who is glad to be alive after being kidnapped and held hostage in remote northeast Ecuador. The guerillas that captured him asked for $80 million for his return, and negotiations lasted over two months. After 141 days, a deal was struck for Jason and the other hostages to return.

"THE STRIPPER AND THE SPY?" (SPY STRIPPER)

Producers: Chris Vlasto and Katie Thomson; Support: Gail Rosenberg

Barbara Walters speaks with Priscilla Sue Gailey, a former stripper, who says she met accused spy, Robert Hansen, who lavished her with expensive gifts without any sexual favors involved.

"GETTING NAILED" (NAILED)

Producers: Candace Hewitt; Support: Erin Biddle and Audrey Latman

Arnold Diaz leads a 20/20 investigation of nail salons in three states that revealed bacteria and unsanitary practices at many of the salons.

"GMAB—MOVIES"

Producer: Frank Mastropolo; Support: Terry Dollard

John Stossel bemoans the existence of movie critics who applaud every movie they review. Movie insiders tell Stossel that too many movie reviewers are wine and dined on media junkets financed by the film studios.

"OUT OF THE BLUE" (PERU AIR DISASTER)—PARTS 1 & 2

Producer: Kristen Strand; Support: David Puente, Mary Healy, and Brian Hale

Diane Sawyer talks about the tragedy of last month when a young family of American missionaries was shot down flying over the Amazon River after the Peruvian government mistook them for drug dealers. Pilot Kevin Donaldson was flying the floatplane with four passengers that included Jim and Veronica Bauers, their son Cory, and their seven-month-old daughter Charity. Only father and son survived.

"DANGEROUS PASSION" (MISSIONARIES)—PART 3

Producer: Bert Rudman; Support: Mary Healy

Peggy Wehmeyer tells of the dangers faced by Christian missionaries. Every year, nearly 130 missionaries are killed because of their commitment to spreading the gospel. In particular, missionaries in Latin American countries are increasingly finding themselves caught in the crossfire of drug traffickers and political conflicts. Peggy Wehmeyer speaks with missionary friends of the Bauer family, as well as the widow of another missionary who was killed while spreading the faith.

"SECRETS OF BEAUTY" (HUNK BEAUTY)—OAD 10/11/98

Producer: Kira Kay; Support: Susan Kriskey

Cynthia McFadden talks with scientists to try and tackle the age-old question of what makes people beautiful. Most scientists and studies claim that although beauty may be in the eye of the beholder, a person's "symmetries" may indicate one's attractiveness as well.

"HANDS OF A STRANGER" (HERO GIRL)

Producers: Chris Whipple and Kira Kay; Support: Tanya Henderson

Chris Cuomo speaks with eight-year-old Mitzi Sanchez who received a medal from the Center for Missing and Exploited Children for her extraordinary courage. Last year, Mitzi was kidnapped in California just before her birthday and managed to escape from her abductor after 44 hours. Her testimony also aided in convicting her abductor who was wanted for a long criminal history.

"Q&A—TONY DANZA"

Producer: Danielle Baum

Friday, May 25, 2001

"SLAVES TO JAPAN" (SLAVE LABOR/ASIAN EMPLOYERS)

Producer: Dave Rummel; Support: Jill Rackmill

Brian Ross tells how American soldiers, once enslaved by Japanese civilians, are now demanding justice for what they were forced to endure. Some 20,000 American GIs were taken prisoner and thrown into slave-work by the Japanese. The GIs say they will continue to fight for an apology.

"A HAPPY LIFE" (ANNA QUINDLEN)

Producer: Nola Safro; Support: Myrna Toledo

Deborah Roberts speaks with Anna Quindlen who has gained fame as an author and journalist, and with her most recent book, "A Short Guide to a Happy Life," she has earned more popularity than ever before. Quindlen says her book is merely a collection of rules to live by that she has learned over the years.

"THE COMEBACK KID" (McCAULEY CULKIN)—OAD 11/17/00

Producer: Katie Thomson; Support: Gail Rosenberg

Barbara Walters revisits her interview with former child star, McCauley Culkin. After a six-year absence from the public eye, Culkin talks about his childhood stardom, his relationship with his father and family, his teenage marriage, and his new role on the London stage.

"GMAB—DARE"

Producer: Kristina Kendall

John Stossel contends that the government's main drug prevention program called DARE is not working, but the government keeps giving it more money. Although DARE has claimed short-term success, long-term studies have found that DARE does not work to curb substance abuse.

Producer: Joe Tobin; Support: Roje Augustin

Don Dahler speaks with John Lee, a sex offender who, with the support of his girlfriend and family, says he has changed. But now the Sex Offender Unit in Corpus Christi is forcing him to post signs in his front yard warning neighbors of his past history. Lee says the mandate is ruining his life.

Thursday, June 21, 2001

"PREDATORS AMONG US" (CLASS OF '91 HOUR)

Producers: Rick Nelson and Kate Harrington; Support: Michael Pickup and Jason Potts

Cynthia McFadden asks the question, what would happen if some of the most dangerous sexual predators, men who preyed on women and children, were released into society lacking treatment necessary for their rehabilitation? One treatment center, the Massachusetts Treatment Center for Sexual Predators, the largest treatment center of its kind in the world, holds about 500 men each year. Each man can ask to be released and it is up to the state to prove if he is still dangerous. While the court relies heavily on psychologists, studies show that under the best circumstances, they are wrong a substantial number of the time in deciding who is fit to be released.

Friday, June 22, 2001

"A DOG'S LIFE" (BICHON)—2 PARTS

Producer: David Peterkin and Penny Fleming; Support: Sandra Temko and Tanya Henderson

"AN OPEN BOOK" (MELISSA ETHERIDGE)

Producer: Jeff Diamond; Support: Jen Fukui

Deborah Roberts talks with singer Melissa Etheridge about Melissa's candid depiction of her life's ups and downs that she writes about in her new book, The Truth Is.....
